ABOUT ME

¡Hola, me llamo Kelly!

I've been teaching Spanish since I moved back to the UK in 2013 after living and working for 20 years in South America. I'm fluent in Spanish to native level having developed and perfected my Spanish language skills in Argentina where I founded and operated a specialist Wine Tour Travel Agency for 10 years. I gained valuable teaching techniques whilst teaching English as a foreign language in Venezuela and Ecuador.

I have a very dynamic, student led approach to teaching - I believe each student's learning journey is unique. I have experience tutoring all levels from beginners through to advanced students, adults as well as children.

At Adventures in Spanish I aim to provide a language learning experience which creates a love of the Spanish language and Hispanic cultures with my students.

T & C

Registration

Clients are required to provide adequate contact details. This will enable me to communicate with you effectively. At the first session, I will ask you to provide me with your, e-mail, landline and mobile numbers. I will only use these to contact you with regard to tuition and I never pass them on to someone else unless you request for me to do so.

Payment

Students' lessons are booked and paid for in advance. This can be termly, half-termly, per block or monthly. In exceptional circumstances, I may allow you to pay for one lesson in advance. Refunds for cancelled lessons will be considered according to my cancellation policy. If, however, I cancel a lesson, then you will be credited for the session.

Cancellation Policy

(One-to-one/online sessions) - see also Termination Policy

I try to be as fair to my clients as possible - however, you will appreciate that tutoring is my living. If I cancel for ANY reason, then I will deduct the cost of the missed lesson from your next bill (or try to rearrange if possible). If you cancel, then I would appreciate at least 48 hours notice and ask that you cancel by telephone or face-to-face in person. In these cases I will either refund you or credit your next invoice. Of course, the more notice the better, as I may be able to offer the session to someone else. If a lesson is cancelled at less than 48 hours notice, you will not receive a refund.

Excessive and repeated cancellations may also lead to an immediate termination of tutoring services. If your family is experiencing exceptional circumstances, I will try to be understanding of these.

T & C

Cancellation Policy (Classes)

Classes, when offered, require a half-termly commitment, so no refunds will be given for these in the event of a cancellation by a student. If I cancel for ANY reason, an extra date will be added to ensure that the full quota of charged lessons are offered.

Termination Policy

If you wish to terminate your regular tuition sessions, then I require 2 weeks notice.

This must be given in person, or by telephone. This enables you to be sure that I have received notice. I like to be able to say 'goodbye' to my students properly and wish them well for the future.

Time Keeping

Clients are responsible for arriving for tuition on time, and lessons will end at the designated time to enable the next student to have their full lesson. If you wish to speak to me about your child's progress, then please do this during the first few minutes or the last few minutes of their lesson. I will wait for 20 minutes for a student to attend a scheduled lesson, if after that time they don't show then the lesson will be cancelled and charged at the usual rate.

Behavior

Parents are responsible for ensuring that their children know how to behave well. I reserve the right to cancel any bookings for students whose behavior is unacceptable. This includes messaging You will, of course, receive a refund for outstanding sessions if I need to enforce this.

My full Private Policy is available to read HERE.
